

As a user, I want to be able to view the train's coach and seat availability in real-time, so that I can make informed booking decisions. Acceptance criteria: The coach and seat availability is displayed in real-time. Users can easily view the availability for different classes and coaches. The availability information is accurate and up-to-date. Users can easily select their preferred coach and seat based on the availability information.